AUTO RUNS DOWN AN AGED COUPLE

Newark, N. J., May 27.—John Hunter, widely known in theatrical circles, and his wife, both aged and frail, are in a critical condition today from injuries received when they were run over by an automobile late last night. Hunter, who was treasurer of a prominent theatre, became blind twenty years ago when his fingers transferred poison from tickets to his eyes. Ever since then, however, he and his wife have attended all of the Newark theatres, at each of which box seats have always been reserved for the aged couple. They were leaving a theatre last night when in sight of several hundred persons they stepped in front of an automobile while dodging a trolley car.

MONEY FOR MRS. LUTHER MCARTY

Marty, N. D., May 27.—Mrs. Luther McCarty, widow of the late prizefighter, may receive $65,000, the amount of the fortune left by her husband. Mrs. McCarty received a telegram yesterday from attorneys in Chicago saying that her husband's estate would reach about $65,000 and that she would be able to claim the money if action were taken at once.

Mrs. McCarty conferred with an attorney who later left for Chicago.

CANNED MUSIC WILL COST MORE

Washington, May 27.—Canned music is to be more of a luxury than ever by reason of a decree of the customs court that phonograph disks must pay duty of 45 per cent at valuation. The court overruled the contention of the American express company for duty at 35 per cent as "manufactures in chief value of gutta percha."
